Learn how to teach the essential fundamentals that will let your teams:

- Play with more confidence because of demonstrated skill and ability.
- Reduce turnovers.
- Score more points.
- Execute your offensive and defensive systems better because they have the necessary skills.
- Have more efficient practices that are intense and productive.
- Have better body balance and basketball movement skills.
- Shoot the ball better so that players can correct their own shooting mistakes.
- Execute the 1-2-1-1 zone press and how to control the tempo of the game and force turnovers!

RUSTY ROGERS is the winner of two NAIA Women's National Championships in 1995 and 1996 with his Western Oregon University women's basketball teams. He has won over 550 career games (296 at the collegiate level) and was named the 1995 and 1996 NAIA National Coach of the Year for women's basketball. Coach Rogers' collegiate teams qualified for post-season national tournament play 12 out of the 16 seasons he coached at the collegiate level. Rogers has also coached at the high school level in Arizona and in Texas in his 26-year coaching career. In addition to being the head coach of the Lady Mustangs basketball team, Coach Rogers is the Athletic Director at HCHS.

KEVIN SIVILS is an 8-time Coach of the Year Award Winner who has amassed 464 career wins as a varsity basketball coach. His teams qualified for the state play-offs 19 times in a 22-year career as a head coach, advancing to the state semi-finals three times. Before becoming a varsity high school coach, Sivils spent two years as an assistant coach at Greenville College. Coach Sivils' system produced two High School All-Americans, 18 All-State Players, and over 80 All-District Players. Coach Sivils has spoken as a clinician in numerous states and traveled as far as the Central African Republic to speak. He is currently the Associate Head Coach for Girls Varsity Basketball at Houston Christian High School.
